

CELEBRATIONS AT CAZALYS

The party season has arrived and Cazalys is proving to be the hot-spot amongst Palmerston locals for a stylish night out.

THERE'S ALWAYS A PARTY AT CAZALYS

Head in on the weekend to soak up the party atmosphere and dance the night away thanks to the talented DJs who hit the stage live every Friday and Saturday evening

This popular venue offers chic private function spaces, live entertainment every Thursday, Friday and Saturday night, a multitude of screens to catch the latest sporting event, not to mention an enviable menu, drinks list and outstanding service. Choose between the retro glamour of Nellys or the al fresco appeal of The Green Room for your next private function and impress your guests with sexy canapés from their extensive range of gourmet platters. A variety of decadent buffet options are also available. Sue Kennedy reveals she recently enjoyed a fabulous night out with friends and family at Cazalys while holding a fundraising trivia event. 'I was extremely impressed. Cazalys provided the trivia host, organised the questions and ran the entire evening. They even donated prizes and we managed to raise a lot of money for our cause.' Make sure you sample Cazalys' delectable new menu on your next night out and take your pick from mouth-watering burgers, silky pastas, and succulent grain-fed T-bone steak, with a range of premium quality wines and classic cocktails to choose from. The weekly specials are also not to be missed so you can enjoy an after-work meal minus the hefty bill. Ease into the week with Cazalys' Pizza Monday deal – think traditional Italian pizzas made on soft, dreamy bases with melt-in-your mouth mozzarella. Head in on the weekend to soak up the party atmosphere and dance the night away thanks to the talented DJs who hit the stage live every Friday and Saturday evening. Thursdays at Nellys also promise a rockin' night out with appearances from touring artists and a weekly set from the 'The Governors' who bring a seductive blend of soul and funk. This hot 7-piece band features a brass section and comprises some of the most talented musicians in the Territory. Whether you're seeking a deliciously satisfying meal or a swanky night out, Cazalys has something for all tastes and budgets. It's no wonder Palmerston is party-central! Dance the night away at Cazalys Palmerston Club, 10 Temple Terrace, Palmerston. Ph: 8932 8688.
