Cerbis Ceramics has an impeccable 30-year reputation for importing the latest fashions in floor and wall coverings from around the world. Now their newest global partner is Atlas Concorde, one of the top Italian manufacturers. They specialise in premium porcelain and wall tiles for every style and application in residential, commercial and public architecture.

The latest range includes floor and wall tiles that feature a simple surface inspired by limestone, and floor and wall tiles with a concrete look, illuminated by the gleam and scratches typical of brushed metallic plates. All are suitable for home and hospitality spaces.
