WHAT'S NEW

Already an Australian award winner for innovation and excellence, the Wirraway Business Centre at Darwin International Airport (DIA) has achieved international recognition at one of the world's most highly regarded airport conferences.

NT AIRPORT SHARES INNOVATION ON THE WORLD STAGE

Darwin International Airport is the first airport in Australia to establish and operate its own business centre, the Wirraway. It has a 75-seat theatre-style function room, a 25-seat conference room, two six-seat meeting rooms, and two twin-seat and three one-seat hot desks. It also houses a reception area and seven permanent office spaces. In November 2017, the Wirraway won the Australian Airport Association Award for non-aeronautical development, which further increases business opportunities outside of traditional airport revenue while demonstrating DIA as an independent business hub.
