WE'RE BLOWN AWAY BY HOW MUCH CAZALYS DONATE EVERY SIX MONTHS

'Around 21 affiliate clubs receive cheques bi-annually,' said Cazalys Marketing Manager Sue Heenan. 'Including Palmerston Crocs Netball Club, NT Hockey and Buffaloes Football Club.' Their support is widely recognised and appreciated by each club. 'Cazalys funds help offset levies for Hockey NT junior tours, taking the pressure off the parents,' said Executive Officer Mark Heath. 'The remainder help maintain our facility and general operations.' Darwin Buffaloes Football Club purchase sports clothing and club jumpers for all their registered players. 'It's a massive help,' said Secretary Costa Karaolias. 'If it weren't for Cazalys donations, we'd need loads more sponsors, and that's almost impossible in these tight economic times.' 'We're blown away by how much Cazalys donate every six months,' said Andrew White, President of Palmerston Crocs Netball. 'It pays our court hire and umpire fees, trophies and presentation events. We're also excited that Cazalys will soon be our partners in obtaining our very own courts.' 'None of this would be possible without our customers,' said Sue. 'By supporting our weekly activities we can donate to the many clubs. It's great to see it making such a wonderful difference.' Regular events at Cazalys in Palmerston include Wednesday Trivia Night from 7.30pm and from 5pm on Fridays, the Monster Draws for meat trays, vouchers and the Monster Jackpot all up for grabs.
