'The girlz are enjoying our new found vocation of transforming tired spaces and also styling homes for sale,' said Director, Jenny Riedel. 'We have recently styled three sale properties for Nick from Pacific Property Darwin. We're excited to say they all sold at the first open inspection.'

If you're selling your home or investment property set it apart from the others by letting the local Z girlz work their unique style and creativity. They're known for bringing that relaxed Territory feel indoors and throughout and can create a fresh space for you with on-trend furniture and homewares.

'A stylish display will maximise the potential of your property and impress buyers,' adds Jenny. Z Furniture has national and international suppliers from Scandinavian elegance to contemporary designed furnishings and can tailor a package to suit your area and your taste.

'We've also recently transformed the H Hotel foyer, D Bar and dining area,' adds Jenny. 'They wanted to bring energy back into the vast hotel restaurant space, but we needed to maintain as much seating space as possible to cater for their breakfast rush. They also wanted more of a lounge bar feel.'

'The bar and dining area is now light and fresh. Jenny and her creative team were so easy to work with,' said H Hotel Manager, Kristy Ryan. 'The leather furniture and timber finishes in the foyer, with splashes of colour was just what was needed. In the D Bar and restaurant they created different pockets where our guests could sit and relax with a glass of wine.'

We are delighted with the final look and are receiving wonderful feedback from guests and locals who visit for our fabulous lunch menu or after work drinks.' 'Between the bar and restaurant we've got cane lounges and greenery and overlooking the pool are high dry bar tables for guests to relax at,' continues Jenny. 'We loved transforming the D Bar, and it's great seeing the staff and guests enjoying it so much now too.'
