

La Vida model $75.

Ceramic trivet $15.

Scented sachets $10 ea.

Family owned and operated, How Sweet It Is at Jape Homemaker Village may look like ye olde-fashioned sweet shop from the outside, but while they do have the most delicious, mouth-watering chocolates, homemade fudges and traditional sweets inside, you'll also find a treasure trove of unique, affordable gifts, accessories and decorations for all ages and all occasions.

RESIDENT GIFTS

WHEN YOU NEED SOMETHING SWEET OR A TOP TREAT...

You'll discover traditional, funky and fun items, including china tea sets, unique wine glasses, drawer liners and sachets, bloke's soap and much more. 'We handpick our exclusive gift range so there is something to appeal to everyone, whether they be male, female, child, staff, dear friend or family,' owner Elizabeth Eustane said. 'Our latest addition is the stunning Beach Art Glass jewellery range. Every piece is unique, inspired by the sea and designed to last a lifetime. Award-winning artist Julie Fountain creates each handmade glass bead one at a time, by melting and shaping rods of Italian Murano glass in a flame, then slowly kiln-cooling them for durability. All are finished with sterling silver and beautifully presented in branded packaging.' Open every day, you can drop in and meet the friendly team of Elizabeth, Eric and Noelene, who will help you create a stylish gift box or basket for any occasion. Their range is full of love and passion and will quickly soothe your soul! 'We cater for every festive occasion or celebration,' Elizabeth said. 'We make your gift giving easy, and your choices won't break the bank either!' Soothe your sweet tooth and solve your gift shopping woes at How Sweet It Is, Shop 15, Jape Homemaker Village, Darwin. Open 7 days from 9am to 5pm Ph: 0408 890 842 elizanderic@hotmail.com

Embroidered hanger and potpourri bag $12 ea.

Above, left and bottom right: Beach Art Glass pendants from $90 ea.

Silk scarves $30 ea.

Tea Towels from $16 ea.

Intrinsic porcelain mugs $25 ea.

Pearl porcelain sugar creamer set $85.

Pearl porcelain cup saucer and spoon $60.

Australian handmade chocolates from $3 ea.

Beach Art Glass earrings from $90.

Paper bottle gift bags $5 ea.

Paper gift handbags $5 ea.

Leather luggage tags $15 ea.

When you're stuck for a gift to buy, then head into How Sweet It Is. You will definitely find something special.

Soap petals and drawer liners $19.90 ea.

Allen Designs wall clocks with pendulum $88 ea.

William Morris tea for one $40.